

The 6 Most Expensive Work Orders in Convenience Stores

Introduction

Convenience stores spend approximately $38,000 per year, per site in maintenance and repair spend.

1 | Fuel System Work Orders

Fuel system work orders account for 29% of work order spend. They are by far the most costly of all repairs.

2 | Building & Property Maintenance

Building and property maintenance including the physical store, canopy, and landscaping adds up to 11% of work order spend.

3 | In Store Alarms

In store alarms account for 8.5% of work order spend for our clients. These alarms include, underground storage tank alarms, security alarms, and fuel alarms.

4 | Planned Preventive Maintenance & Compliance Base Work Orders

PMM and CPPM related work orders take up as much as 10-20% of entire maintenance spend in a year of operations.

6 | Refrigerant Management & Refrigerant Compliance

On average our customers spend 5% of their work order spend on refrigerant related work orders.

Conclusion

Convenience stores have significant assets that they keep track of every day to serve their customers.

Over 73.5% of all work order spend are on the critical assets listed above.

5 | Car Wash

Our clients spend 5% of their total maintenance spend on car washes each year.

Accruent is a leader in convenience store maintenance solutions. If you want to better protect your assets - check us out at

<https://www.accruent.com/industries/retail/convenience-stores>

accruent