

Export Control and Sanctions Compliance

Accruent software products and services (Accruent products) are subject to export controls under the laws and regulations of the United States, the European Union, and any other applicable countries' export laws and regulations.

Destination Restrictions

Accruent products are not available for export, re-export, transfer (including in-country transfer), use, or access (including cloud access*) to entities located in or individuals domiciled in or temporarily visiting the following countries or regions:

- Crimea Region of Ukraine / Sevastopol
- The so-called Donetsk People's Republic (DNR) / Luhansk People's Republic (LNR)
- Cuba
- Iran
- North Korea
- Russia
- Syria

*Cloud access and/or download from the countries or regions listed above is considered an export under U.S. export and applicable economic sanctions laws and regulations and is therefore prohibited.

End-User Restrictions

Accruent products shall not be accessed or used by entities or individuals with whom transactions are prohibited under applicable export control and sanctions laws, including those listed on any applicable sanctioned party lists, including but not limited to the European Union Sanctions List, U.S. Specially Designated National (SDN) lists, U.S. Denied Persons List, BIS Entity List, and United Nations Security Council Sanctions.

End-Use Prohibitions

A license, authorization, or other documentation may be required to proceed with transactions involving restricted end-uses, including but not limited to:

- Military end-uses that may implicate an arms embargo or similar restriction; and
- Certain civil nuclear end-uses.

Accruent products may not be used to aid in the development, design, manufacture, or production of nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons, or weapons of mass destruction.
